The Peabody Galleria

THE LEGEND OF THE DUCKS

In the 1930s, Frank Schutt, General Manager of The Peabody, and a friend, Chip Barwick, returned from a weekend hunting trip to Arkansas. The men had a little too much Tennessee sippin' whiskey and thought it would be funny to place some of their live decoy ducks (live decoys were legal at the time) in the beautiful Peabody fountain. Three small English call ducks were selected as "guinea pigs," and the reaction was nothing short of enthusiastic. Thus began a Peabody tradition which was to become internationally famous. 🦆🦆🦆

Grand Beginnings

Nearly 140 years ago, Tennessean Robert Brinkley built The Peabody Hotel as an opulent enclave to epitomize the finest traditions of the South. Here, local gentry could congregate in lavish comfort, and ladies could meet and greet for afternoon tea. Today, that proud history of excellence is reflected throughout each Peabody Hotel in its dazzling public spaces, its inviting guestrooms, and its handpicked selection of accessories and gifts. We invite you to peruse this collection and acquire a piece of The Peabody tradition for yourself or a friend.
